HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR WORK

We love viewing artwork and review each and every submission – that's a promise. It is only fair to let you know that we only take a very small percentage of the very large number of artists who approach us.

Before sending your work, please visit our website at www.wildapple.com for complete details on the process. Then, send either a link to your website, or email approximately 20 jpegs (low to medium resolution, please), to artsubmissions@wildapple.com.

If you do not hear from us within two weeks, it means that we are unfortunately not able to use your work. We're sorry but we can't respond to inquiries via phone or provide individual feedback due to the high volume of submissions received each week.

Thank you for considering Wild Apple as your publishing and licensing partner.

ARTOOPYRIGHTOOALITION PROTECTING ART and CREATIVITY

Wild Apple is proud to be a founding member of the Art Copyright Coalition (ACC). More than 10 years ago we met with a group of art publishers from North America, the UK and Europe to discuss the ongoing issue of copyright infringement. This was the origin of the Art Copyright Coalition, a united group working together to combat illegal copying of our artists' works by manufacturers around the world. Together we take action against infringers, raise awareness of the issues at tradeshows, educate retailers who may be unknowingly supporting copyright infringers, and lobby governments on behalf of our members and the visual arts community. The ACC is committed to protecting art and creativity and responding to its members' concerns.

Please support the ACC by visiting www.artcopyright.net.

CLASSIC REVIVAL

Classic decor never goes out of style.

We are loving the Classic Revival look taking over everything for the home. This look is all about dipping back into history and re-inventing classic looks with an updated, fresh perspective. You'll find detailed renderings of classic columns, vintage maps and even antique vases. The colors are subtle and can easily melt into just about any color palette, making them a perfect choice for both the wall and decorative accessories for the home.

WE'VE GOT THE BLUES

Blue is dazzling this year!

Every year new colors top the list for designers around the world. This year, among others, blue is dazzling. It's our job to translate these color trends into the home and our artists were up to the task. From breezy coastal collections, textured abstracts and modern florals, we've got you covered. So this year, it's ok to get the blues ... but just make sure you dazzle!

TEXTILES & PATTERNS

Textiles are a major influence on home decor.

From big bold blooms, paisley and ikat, to geometric patterns and fresh modern florals, the texture and design of fabric are coloring our walls and our lives. We're also seeing patterns in every color scheme possible, making it easy to get something for your unique product. Our artists have created stunning collections that fit perfectly into this trend. From the wall to stationery, textiles and ceramics, this look has staying power.

NEUTRALS

There are endless design possibilities when you work with neutrals.

Neutral doesn't have to be boring. In fact we think it is the exact opposite. From subtle grays and creams to rich shades of brown and black, we think of a neutral interior as a canvas just waiting to be painted on. For decorative accessories the choices are endless ... add a little pattern here, a gorgeous floral there. The wall is just as stunning with classic looks, modern abstracts, landscapes and more. In the end, art helps transform the ordinary into something extraordinary.

Silvia describes her style as "free and bold" and we couldn't agree more. Her mastery of color texture and composition is evident in every collection. Influenced by Japanese wood block prints, renaissance masters and French impressionists, her florals, landscapes, abstracts and whimsical collections never cease to amaze.

"I paint things the way I see them... which is more how I want them to be than how they really are." Emily Adams paints what she loves: fashion, all things French, and feminine objects that capture the imagination. Self-taught, she experiments with texture and color, juxtaposing the new with the old. Inspired by exquisite Parisian storefronts and elegant country gardens, her work is admired for its elements of whimsy, her motto being "life is too short to overlook the beauty and humor right in front of us."

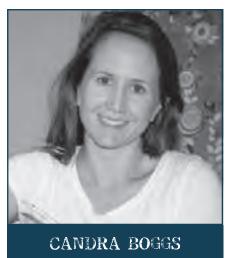

Belinda Aldrich grew up in South Africa and immigrated with her family to Vermont in 1994. Belinda has always loved art and design and wanted to be a graphic designer starting at a young age. She graduated from Lyndon State College with a BA in graphic design and has been working as a full-time and freelance designer for the past 10 years. Belinda is a sports fanatic, playing soccer, snowboarding, and surfing in the cold waters of Maine where she lives.

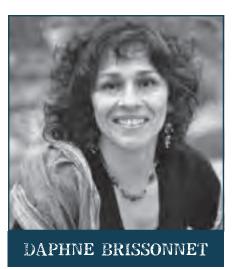

Canadian artist Lisa Audit loves the world of decorating, and her artwork has successfully appeared on prints, stationery, wallpaper, fabrics and many other home products. Lisa paints mostly with oils on canvas but also works in acrylics and pen & ink for more precise imagery. She is inspired by past masters Picasso, Cezanne, Rubens and Manet. Lisa has a spacious studio in the basement of her home, where she lives with her two teenaged children.

Candra Boggs transforms the joy and peaceful feelings she gets from her children into her paper mosaic artwork. Family, children, and her environment influence the way she approaches a new piece. Her mosaics have a contemporary appeal, with hidden surprises. "The materials used are simple: wood, paper, ink, linoleum, paint, glue and sealer. I choose to create images that are derived from free-flowing thoughts, creating with a layering process of color, texture, shape, and line, which articulate my mood and inspiration."

Daphne Brissonnet has always been drawn to the beauty of nature. Her early studies in botany opened her eyes to the form, dimension and subtle colors of her natural subjects. As she discovered a universe of unexpected beauty in the flowers and plants she studied, painting these subjects became an important part of her life, while revealing her talents as an artist. Primarily self-taught, Daphne continues to refine her skills by attending workshops in France and the U.S. as well as closer to her home in Canada.

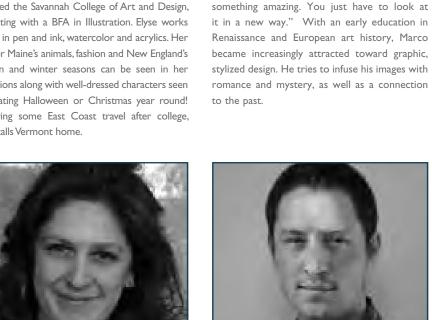

French Canadian artist Veronique Charron takes inspiration for her fresh, graphic designs from the environment that surrounds her country home in Charlevoix, Quebec. Veronique's formal study focused on graphic art and design, though the style of her artwork is uniquely her own. From fashion to flowers, Véro captures her subjects using a dynamic mix of texture, color and youthful flair.

Elyse DeNeige has lived on the quaint Maine coast, survived busy city life in historic Portland and found peace in a rustic life on a lake in the woods. She attended the Savannah College of Art and Design, graduating with a BFA in Illustration. Elyse works mainly in pen and ink, watercolor and acrylics. Her love for Maine's animals, fashion and New England's autumn and winter seasons can be seen in her collections along with well-dressed characters seen celebrating Halloween or Christmas year round! Following some East Coast travel after college, Elyse calls Vermont home.

STEFANIA FERRI

Italian artist Stefania Ferri taps into her intense Ryan Fowler is an illustrator and graphic curiosity to create artwork that is serene, artist based near Chicago and Middlebury, elegant and romantic. "Passion moves me and Vermont. Ryan received his MFA from Rhode holds me by the hand whenever I paint a new Island School of Design where he studied image," she says. "There's too much beauty around photography. Using a hybrid of traditional me not to be lost in contemplation. RYAN FOWLER

Sarah Faulkner's art captures the important relationships we have with all things in the natural world. Raised on a quiet farm in Virginia, she was surrounded by freedom, simplicity and imagination; three qualities that are reflected in her creative endeavors. Today, Sarah experiments with different materials, especially wax, to capture the mysterious and atmospheric qualities found in nature. This translucent and misty material blends and softens colors, giving her work an element of light.

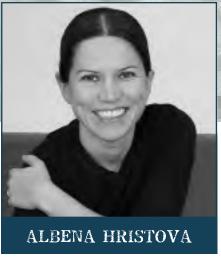

After earning her degree in fine art, Kristy Goggio owned and operated a frame shop where she continued to learn about the art industry. Kristy now dedicates herself to creating artwork full-time. She works with both acrylic and oil paints to create the rich tones, gradations and transparencies that make her work so appealing. She lives with her husband and dog on a peaceful lake in Wisconsin.

Marilyn Hageman's rich paintings capture mood and energy. Intrigued by their speed and motion, she began to paint horses at the early age of three. Now a painter of natural landscapes and botanicals, Marilyn still strives to capture the lyrical energy of the horses she drew in childhood. She also holds an MFA in painting. She now works and resides in Illinois, where larger-than-life canvases line the walls of her studio, depicting horses or wine or a villa on a hillside.

After graduating from the Savannah College of Art and Design with a BFA in Illustration, Moira Hershey relocated to Vermont to work as a staff artist and designer at Wild Apple. Her personal style is quirky, cute, and fun, with an emphasis on bold lines and texture using gouache, ink, and digital media. She is inspired by Andy Warhol's early advertising work, and the flat, graphic qualities in the works of Charley Harper and Alphonse Mucha. She spends her free time reading, watching movies, and singing bad karaoke.

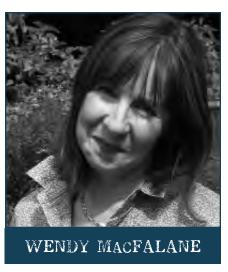

Albena Hristova, an international artist with over twelve years of classical art training and a master's in mural painting, is one of the most successful open edition artists on the market. She relentlessly searches for the perfect combination of form, color and texture. Her paintings exude elegance and timelessness. She was born and raised in a family of artists in Eastern Europe and presently resides in California. She possesses an incredible visual memory that fuels her avid artistic imagination.

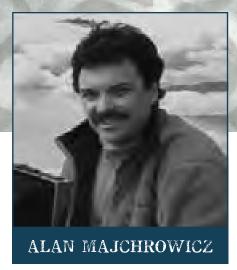

Rebecca Kinkead captures vulnerability, tenderness, joy and human relationships in her large scale oil paintings. Applying the paint with palette knives, her technique includes layering, scraping, dripping and layering again. Color and texture rise from the canvas, revealing dreamy and ambiguous figures that evoke memories and stories. Her rural studio "looks like someone put paint in a blender and left the lid off." She and her husband enjoy traveling and being active outdoors, but home and the studio always beckon.

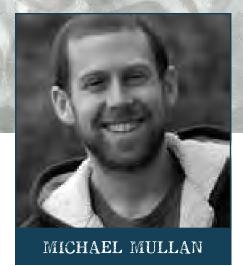

Many elements make Kathrine Lovell's paintings unique. Her work balances an ethereal view of the natural world with complex patterning. She combines individual small images into larger compositions, creating the effect of tile. Kathrine received her BFA from Rhode Island School of Design and teaches painting and works as a decorative painter. She lives in Rhode Island with her partner and two dogs.

Wendy MacFarlane is a British textile designer working in mixed media and the innovative use of computer graphics. She is inspired to interpret everyday subjects in a new and sometimes mischievous way. Wendy received a BA in Textile Design from the Winchester School of Art, and then worked as a freelance designer. She has traveled the world, and finds the continuous task of balancing design and life invigorating. Wendy currently works with Jane Mosse Designs.

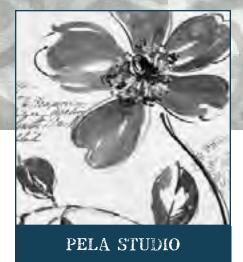

Wilderness photographer Alan Majchrowicz is fortunate to be able to combine his passion for the outdoors with his profession. Born, raised and educated in the midwest, Alan felt the call of the Pacific Northwest and moved there in 1980. He travels widely with backpack and camera to find the out-of-the-way places that appear in his extraordinary photographs.

Michael Mullan is an artist and illustrator who began his art career as a graphic designer. Following his passion for drawing, he returned to school in 2006 to get an MFA in Illustration at the Savannah College of Art & Design. With a deep appreciation for both design and illustration, his art reflects graphic and handmade qualities reminiscent of printmaking techniques and paying tribute to his hero, Andy Warhol. Michael lives and works in the hills of rural Vermont.

Danhui Nai was born in mainland China and raised in an artistic household with her sculptor father and painter mother. Her natural passion for art was guided through classical training which she applies in her California studio to create beautiful, on-trend artwork in a variety of media. Later, she studied interior design in Paris and New York City. Danhui worked in the textile industry in Manhattan, where she continued her studies and artistic development.

Pela Studio is made up of like-minded artists based in the U.S. and Canada, combining current trends and classic design to create a unique style. Using its knowledge of home decor, client feedback, and sharp eye for style, Pela Studio creates custom imagery to fit nearly any look or program. With combined experience of over 30 years, this studio group of artists creates an ever-expanding portfolio of successful artwork - and has fun doing it! Its mission is to allow consumers to express their creative side and bring new and unique styles to the home.

"Taking old art and making it new and fresh again is very rewarding," says artist Katie Pertiet. Her home studio is a mix of old and new, just as is her art. Katie blends patterns, colors, textures and antique engravings to create something new. She has worked as a graphic designer for over twenty years. Her home studio is a mix of old and new, just like her art. Her vintage book library and paints and brushes occupy the same space as her prized Macintosh computer.

Courtney Prahl studied art at both Marymount University and Clarion University of Pennsylvania. Her focus was primarily on the 3D arts that later translated into her work in mixed media collage. Color plays a big part in her work, and she always incorporates vintage paper, loving the juxtaposition of old and new materials. Believing that art should be attainable to all, she teaches art to children at the local shelter and contributes art to local charities. Courtney resides in Maryland, with her two sons and husband.

Shirley Novak is wild about poppies. She loves to paint them, to grow them and to share them with her fellow gardeners. Her childhood passions were growing, drawing and painting flowers, which she continues to do at her Colorado studio. Shirley paints in oils using a wet-on-wet technique. She paints en plein air whenever possible, either in her garden or on location when she travels.

Marc Olivier has worked in digital photography ever since his analog equipment was burglarized from his Paris apartment. As a PhD in French Literature, Marc thinks of photography as a form of research and writing. Marc explores Paris photographically as if it were a library filled with books - some well-read classics and others as overlooked stories. Observing, shooting, editing, and refining the image, he brings a particular story to the viewer. He believes there is something magical about freezing a moment in time. Marc, his wife and three children love to travel, all with large SLR cameras.

Montreal-based art director Alain Pelletier has been in the poster and licensing business for over 25 years. Alain started in the business as an owner of a stationery company with broad distribution throughout North America. Alain's keen eye for art direction helped launch his licensing business, Pela Concept. Alain loves to art-direct his team of artists to create new styles and images for the home and gift markets under Atelier & Company for Wild Apple Graphics.

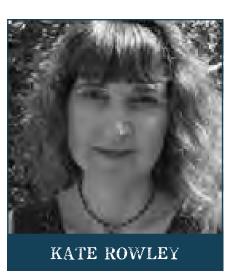

Fine artist and muralist Julia Purinton divides her time between the gentle landscape of north shore Boston and a small rural village in Vermont. Both places provide plenty of material for her evocative landscape paintings. Working in oils, acrylics, venetian plaster and glaze, Julia's artwork has the luminous glow of images by artists who influence her: Maxfield Parrish, Winslow Homer and the Brandywine River School painters. Her work is found in galleries on the east coast.

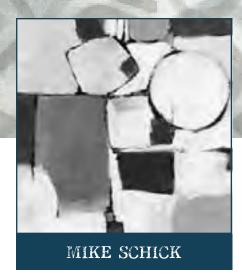

For over a decade, Carol Rowan made fine art her primary focus. Carol received her Master of Fine Arts from Cranbrook Academy of Art. She retired from teaching and devoted all her time to creating art. Her artistic style centered upon color relationships, the presence of light, and a sense of energy. Her inspirations came from her immediate surroundings—her flower gardens and her home.

1938-2012

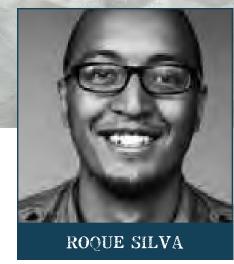

Bold colors and contemporary design are the hallmarks of Kate Rowley's work. Her collections, rich in design and texture, are fed from her successful career as a textile designer, creating stunning collections for the home. Kate studied textile design and received a BA from Camberwell School of Art and Crafts in London. She has designed furnishing fabrics, wallpapers, table linens, bed linens, shower curtains and more. Her home and studio in a seaside town look out on her garden, over the rooftops, and out to sea ... a lovely place to be inspired and create.

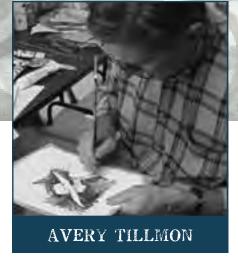

Mike Schick began painting after years in three-dimensional art fields as a sculptor and home accessories designer and builder. As in those disciplines, Mike relies heavily on drawing and attention to surface detail and texture in his paintings. Mike still approaches each painting experimentally and is amazed and amused by the variety of influences on the final result.

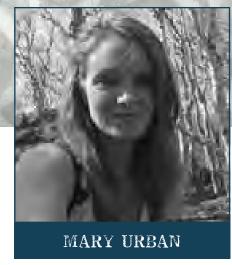

Sue Schlabach has worked for Wild Apple as a designer, art director and artist for 17 years. Her love of the arts began as a child in southeastern Pennsylvania where she grew up in a house filled with references to botany, towers of books, antique quilts, and the ticking and tocking of many heirloom clocks. In such a place you just start to make things, and thus began a lifelong obsession. Sue's art includes painted works in acrylics and oils, multi-media collage and photographic collage.

Roque Silva spent two weeks painting in our Wild Apple Vermont studio in August, 2012. Born in Bogota, Columbia, Roque's family moved to Florida when he was a teenager. Be chance, he was enrolled in an introductory art class in his new school. Roque has a raw individual flair to his painting. When one of his paintings won an art show and was displayed in the Fort Lauderdale Museum of Art, Roque began to sell his paintings, enabling him to attend the Savannah College of Art and Design.

Avery Tillmon has made creating art a lifelong passion. After graduating from college with a degree in sculpture, he has followed a career in art, including teaching and designing, as well as professional sculpting and painting. He likes to approach painting and drawing as very shallow sculpture, building and taking away until he has achieved what he originally envisioned.

Mary Urban loves art and, when she isn't creating, you can find her immersed in stacks of art history books. "I love to almost oversaturate myself with their inspiration. Then I close the books and work on my own images." At 18, she moved to Boston to study graphic design at the Massachusetts College of Art. Returning home she opened an organic coffee and tea house with her brother. Today, Mary is known for working in a variety of media and styles. She can often be found under a giant maple tree working on her next collection.

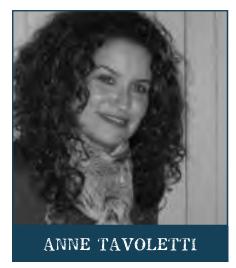

Silvia Vassileva pursued her love of art at the Academy of Fine Art in Bulgaria, where she earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees. She spent six years painting and exhibiting her work in Japan before moving to the U.S. Silvia describes her style as very free and bold. She makes her paintings come alive by using contrast and unusual color palettes. Silvia's home studio, which she designed herself, is bright, contemporary and minimalist.

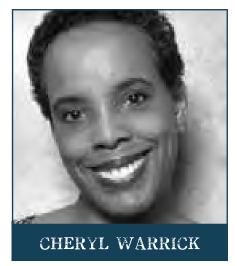

Studio Mousseau has worked in the commercial art market as a commercial illustrator, graphic designer and art director for both open edition print and licensing markets. Much to the disappointment of her mother, a bookstore owner, Ms. Mousseau fell in love with fashion and home decor magazines. To this day, a trip to the newsstand is one of her favorite pastimes, and where she finds much of her creative inspiration. Studio Mousseau features multi-media and painted work in acrylics.

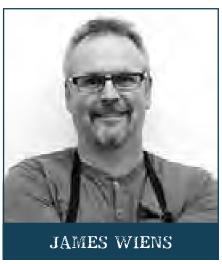

Myles Sullivan loves to capture a fleeting moment of time in his paintings. There is always a story behind the scene, though the story remains enigmatic. Whether the image shows an instant of connection between two people or a withdrawal into loneliness, Myles' artwork portrays moody, soulful scenes. Myles experimented with several styles and media after graduating from art school. He claims to have a "reservoir" of paintings yet to be created in his signature style, though he does not discount the possibility of a major shift some time in the future.

For Anne Tavoletti, drawing and painting have always been her passions. Growing up in western Pennsylvania, her artist parents were enormous influences, and she admires the work of Mary Cassatt, John Singer Sargent, and Rene Gruau. Anne received her associate's degree in fashion illustration from The Fashion Institute of Technology in New York City. Her style of illustration varies greatly from editorial fashion to folk art. She works in a variety of media, including acrylics, pen and ink, colored pencil, and watercolors.

When the viewer engages with a Cheryl Warrick painting, they are seeing more than art. They are experiencing a journey of wisdom where the artist asks the viewer "to look deeper and find a meaning that uplifts the spirit and engages the mind." A mixed media artist, Cheryl is celebrated for her quilt-like paintings that incorporate symbols, archetypes and landscapes. A painter, printmaker and illustrator for over 20 years, her paintings are found in over 50 collections around the world.

James Wiens is an avid lifelong outdoorsman, having grown up and settled in British Columbia, surrounded by dramatic mountains and rivers. His artwork, primarily oil painting, reflects his love of nature and landscapes. James studied at the Emily Carr College of Art & Design in Vancouver, earning a diploma in printmaking and painting. James has applied the work ethic he gained on his family farm to his 30 year career as a professional artist. James is dedicated to his wife, children, and close-knit extended family.

Wild Apple Portfolio/Photography showcases the collaborative efforts of our talented and creative designers and art directors. Using found objects, documents, photography and vintage art, the work of our studio addresses current design trends.
